ABOUT THE SERVICE

The Social Care and Wellbeing Service supports adults to maintain and improve their health and wellbeing, maximising their independence, choice and control. It brings together statutory social work and social care focusing on personal support activities, holistic care and working through a culture of enablement and positive risk enablement by adopting a personalised approach to work with adults, carers and their families.

ABOUT THE JOB

As a Senior Practitioner you will promote the development of high quality practice standards of social work providing leadership and professional wisdom to colleagues. Using a role model approach you will oversee the professional development of staff by providing advice, support and mentoring to Social Workers and Community Assessment and Support Officers ensuring that their work is audited against accepted criteria. Working with individuals you will explore their development needs and develop plans to address these. You will support the Team and Deputy Team Managers to motivate other members of the team encouraging positive partnership working.

You will support the development of a culture of delivering high quality services and monitor the performance of staff against these standards using a range of means e.g. user/carer satisfaction surveys. You will provide constructive challenge to enhance practice and procedures, promote innovation and suggest improvements to ways of working – for example using learning from complaints and other reviews to enhance future service delivery.

Recording and documenting work/cases is a fundamental part of the social work role and you will support staff to develop their IT skills to work with the administrative systems and procedures in place.

In your role you will also undertake professional Social Work and hold a case load of complex cases and undertake needs assessments, risk assessments and reviews as appropriate. You will apply appropriate legal and policy frameworks and guidance that inform and mandate social work practice recognising where scope for professional judgement exists. You will gather information quickly and effectively so as to inform judgement for interventions including in crises and in response to challenge, or in the absence of complete information. On occasions when dealing with complex cases you may co-work with less experienced staff. You will formulate plans in consultation with the individual and their carers, which will meet their assessed needs, within the priorities and eligibility criteria of the Council, ensuring that individuals and carers are actively involved.

Wherever reasonably practicable, you will identify health and safety issues that may place individuals or groups at risk and ensure these are recorded and brought to the attention of staff responsible for the delivery of services.

You will ensure that reviews of care plans/interventions are carried out within both legal and procedural timescales and practice guidelines and any adjustments required are put in place.

Your high level literacy skills will support you to prepare clear, concise and logical reports, including where appropriate, reports which may be submitted for Court purposes, and to ensure that accurate and up-to-date records are kept.

Your Deputy Team Manager will provide you with professional supervision which will allow you to keep your manager informed of case progress and highlight any areas of difficulty or concern.

Your expertise in the service will allow you to contribute to the identification of unmet needs for service planning and commissioning. You may also be asked to join working groups or projects focused on service development.

You will also be required to undertake one of the following specialist roles: Practice Educator, BIA or AMHP.

In your role you will be expected to work within the requirements of the Professional Capabilities Framework (PCF).

You will be expected to carry out your duties in line with the Council's policies, procedures and relevant legislation. You will be made aware of these in your appointment letter, statement of particulars, induction, ongoing performance management and development and through Council communications.

As part of your wider duties and responsibilities you are required to promote and actively support the Council's responsibilities towards safeguarding. Safeguarding is about keeping people safe and protecting them from harm, neglect, abuse and injury. It is about creating safe places, being vigilant and doing something about any concerns you might have. Safeguarding relates to everyone who may be vulnerable, not just the very old and the very young. Please read our safeguarding policy.
