The Person

We need our employees to be driven to achieve the best, to be hard working, respectful and thoughtful to each other and our customers and to be creative, wherever they work. The right behaviours and attitudes are as important to us as the skills you bring to the job. Flexible and proactive, with a positive approach, you are open to new ways of working and keen to provide excellent customer service.

In your role you will support the progress and performance of the team through effective leadership, supervision, support and training, managing the team resource effectively and keeping up to date with best practice, innovations and developments.

You will be required to build and maintain effective working relationships with a wide range of people and assist with specific projects. This work may involve working independently and using your own initiative to resolve and respond to a variety of complex problems or queries, giving advice and guidance to others

You will have the ability to analyse complex statistical information and be able to produce management information as required, with excellent levels of attention to detail and accuracy.

You will be expected to deal with information which may be confidential or sensitive. You may also be required to attend internal or external meetings on behalf of the service.

The right behaviours and attitudes are as important to us as the skills you bring to the job. We expect all our employees to demonstrate the following behaviours:

- Positive
- Honesty
- Respectful
- Flexible
- Communicative
- Supportive

We also expect you to promote and role model the Council's Expectations of a New Council employee within the organisation.

This role is at level 1. The Council's Behaviours and Expectations will be tested throughout the selection process.
