Policy statement on recruiting applicants with criminal records:

If applicable you are required to give details of any criminal convictions which are not spent. In addition, you are required to disclose any convictions, cautions, reprimands, or final warnings that are not “protected” as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013 and 2020). This will not necessarily bar you from applying, it will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offences.

For further information on filtering please refer to Disclosure and Barring Service Website.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-filtering-guidance/dbs-filtering-guide>

Please note, the new filtering guidance applies to certificates issued on or after 28 November 2020.

We recognise the contribution that former or ex-offenders can make as employees and volunteers and welcome applications from them. A person’s criminal record will not debar that person from being appointed to this post. Any information given will be treated in the strictest confidence. Suitable applicants will not be refused posts because of offences which are not relevant to the role and which do not make them a risk in the role for which they are applying

All cases will be examined on an individual basis, taking the following into consideration:

- Whether the conviction is relevant to the position applied for.
- The seriousness of any offence revealed.
- The age of the applicant at the time of the offence(s).
- The length of time since the offence(s) occurred.
- Whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behaviour.
- The circumstances surrounding the offence(s), and the explanation(s) offered by the person concerned.
- Whether the applicant's circumstances have changed since the offending behaviour.

It is important that applicants understand that failure to disclose all convictions, cautions, reprimands, or final warnings that are not “protected” could result in disciplinary proceedings or dismissal.
