10. Criminal Convictions

This post is covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975, as amended in 2013, because it is a post which involves working with children or young people. You are therefore required to declare whether you have any existing or relevant pending criminal convictions (or cautions or bind-overs) including those which are spent. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are protected and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account.

Guidance and criteria on the filtering of the cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service Website.

Further information on teacher misconduct can be found at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/teacher-misconduct>

If you have answered yes to any of the above questions please give all details on a separate sheet, place the sheet in a sealed envelope marked confidential and enclose with your application form or send within a separate envelope under separate cover. Failure to disclose convictions, cautions or bind overs which have not been filtered could result in withdrawal of any conditional offer, disciplinary action or dismissal. It is a criminal offence to apply or accept a position (paid or unpaid) working with children if you are excluded from such work by virtue of a court order or exclusions by the DBS.

11. Declaration

I certify that the information contained in this application form is accurate and true. I am not barred from working with children or vulnerable adults or subject to sanctions imposed by a regulatory body. I give my consent to the processing, transfer and disclosure of all information submitted by me during the recruitment process and throughout any subsequent periods of employment for pre-employment checks, equal opportunities monitoring, payroll operations and training and absence records. (Data Protection Act 1998). I am aware that deliberate falsification or withholding of information will lead to disciplinary proceedings and may result in dismissal or withdrawal of an offer of employment. I am also aware that by submitting my application, it is assumed that I have accepted the above declaration.
