Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974  All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. However, amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website or at Unlock: https://hub.unlock.org.uk/knowledgebase/what-will-be-filtered-by-dbs/ Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of the interview. You may be asked for further information about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) before your appointment is confirmed.  If you are invited to the next stage of the selection process (for example interview or assessment) you must complete the attached criminal record declaration form. You will be asked to present this in an envelope marked 'Private and Confidential' to the Chair of the recruitment panel but do not need to do anything at this stage.
